The 2020 Gau-Algesheimer Goldberg opens with a clear, intense and elegant nose with spicy-herbal and floral rather than fruity notes. Vital and fresh on the first palate, then textured and lush, this is an intense and still somewhat untamed but tensioned and grippy Riesling with serious tannins and finely bitter lemon fruit on the finish. Think of a good gin and tonic based on Riesling and you are almost here. 12.5% stated alcohol. Screw cap. Tasted in June 2022.
